Psalm 45 is a psalm which appears to celebrate the marriage of a Hebrew king, presumably in the lineage of David. It clearly has messianic applications.

1. What is the psalmist feeling in his heart as he composes this psalm? (v. 1)

2. To whom are verses 1-9 addressed?

3. To whom are verses 10-16 addressed?

4. What is he saying in his analogy of his tongue as the pen of a ready writer? (v. 1)

5. In verses 3-5, what does kind of endeavor does the psalmist portray that the Mighty One as setting out upon?

6. How is the throne of God characterised? (v. 6)

7. Why has the object of the psalmist’s praise been annointed with joy? (v. 7)

8. What is the choice that has been set before the woman who is to be the King’s bride? (vv. 10, 11)

9. What is the tradeoff promised to the bride? (v. 16)

10. Write down either some key thing you have learned in this lesson, or some way you wish to apply a truth from this lesson in your life.
